Fourth edition of the Panatta Tennis Invitational for WeWorld is under way

BANOR CAPITAL PLAYS TENNIS WITH ADRIANO PANATTA TO HELP DISADVANTAGED MOTHERS AND THEIR CHILDREN

London, 29 June 2017 - Banor Capital, one of London's most successful asset management firms, is stepping onto the tennis court to provide tangible help for disadvantaged mothers and children. Banor Capital is sponsoring the fourth edition of the Panatta Tennis Invitational. The charity tennis tournament is promoted by Adriano Panatta with the support of Banca Generali to support the WeWorld charity and promote the rights of disadvantaged women and children.

At the tournament, which takes place on Friday 30 June at the Quanta Club in Milan, 32 pairs of tennis players will be competing, including two from the Banor Capital team.

Several famous faces from the world of entertainment will also be taking part and supporting the WeWorld project.

The winners will receive their prize from the legendary captain of the first David Cup: Adriano Panatta.

"We're honoured to join Adrian Panatta in this charity event", explains Giacomo Mergoni, CEO at Banor Capital. "Occasions like this give us a real opportunity to support important projects promoted by WeWorld and help those most in need".

The revenue from the tournament will be donated to WeWorld, which works in Italy and many other countries around the world to defend the rights of disadvantaged women and children. It provides education and health assistance and protection from violence and abuse. In addition to concrete action in its various regions of operation, WeWorld organises awareness-training courses for individuals and institutions in an attempt to change the cultural approach to problems which still, sadly, affect many women and children.

A must-see match.
