Tennis and solidarity with Banca Generali
and Adriano Panatta

Adriano Panatta

Former tennis champion Adriano Panatta and Banca Generali have once again strengthened their ties on behalf of charity.

The fourth edition of the "Panatta Tennis Invitational", a charity tournament promoted by Adriano Panatta with the support of Banca Generali and Banor Capital, took place yesterday, 30 June, at the Quanta Club in Milan. Thirty-two pairs of tennis players competed on the courts of this historic Milanese club under the watchful eyes of the captain of the first Italian Davis Cup. The challenge was entirely for charity, with all of the revenue from the tournament being donated to WeWorld. The charity works to defend the rights of disadvantaged women and children in Italy and other countries around the globe.
